line of Inter-Oceanic traffic. This Road was originally known as the Wilmington Charlotte and Rutherford road, and before the war, under that name, was completed to within a few miles of Rockingham in the County of Richmond. The Company fell into difficulties and the road passed into other hands under a change of name. Under its new management it has been completed to Charlotte. Before the war the western end of the road had been sompleted as far as Cherryville. This end has now been extended nearly to

Shelby, making a continuous line from Wilmington of 242 miles, the longest single line in North Carolina under one management. Its farther extension west is the subject of a difference of opinion, merely in regard to the direction. The extension is a fixed determination, to be made with the Western North Carolina Road, but whether at Hickory by a branch from Lincolnton or whether from Shelby to Asheville is an unsettled point. But when the connection is made Wilmington is brought, by the completion of the W. N. C. Raitroad to Morristown, within 580 miles of Cincinnati, the same distance that it is from Baltimore to

Gov. Brogden being introduced by

Col. T. M. Holt, proceeded to welcome the members of the Cotton States Congress to the Capital of the State of North Carolina. The speaker hoped that much good results would follow from the labors of those who had on this occasion gathered together from different States and from different sections of the Union. The United States had been peculiarly blessed in many respects, and it only remained for our people, and particularly our mechanical, manufacturing and farming interests, to work together more getically to make this country all that its most ardent friends could wish, the pride of our own people and the admiration and envy of the world. And in this effort the people of the South and of the great West had much to do, as upon their exertions depended the success of every enterpaise in this great country. The South should depend to a much greater extent upon her own resources if she ever wished to become prosperous and independent-we needed more manufactories of every character, a greater diversity in our crops, and a more harmonious working together of those interests which ded a welcome to the Cotton States Congress to North Carolina. Col. Buttler, in behalf of the Cotton States Congress, thanked the Governor and the people of North Carolina for this welcome to the Capitol of this State. He rejoiced that this Congress was privileged to meet in that State which first declared its independence from the rule of a foreign government, and he hoped the grand and glorious results following that declaration would be but an augury of the good results which should follow effort of the Southern farmer to declare his independence of that influence which has made him the time-server of those who reaped the benefit of his labors. He was glad to see North Carolina extending this welcome to those who were laboring for her interests in common with their own, and he believed the delibewere so identical. He again exten-

productive of both profit and pleasure to all parties interested. Col. Wm. Johnston introduced Mr. F. H. Busbee, who in behalf of Mayor Separks, extended to the Cotton States Congress a hearty welcome to Raleigh and its hospitalities. North Carolina had become fully entitled to be called a cotton State and Raleigh with pride claimed a right to have this Cotton States Congress in her midst, as her own prosperity was due to the growth of her cotton trade. And he could also extend a hearty welcome to the representatives of the great West present in this Congress, as, deplore it as in much good to the whole country, much as we may, the West was the granary and smoke-house of the whole South, and the commingling of the representatives of the two sections was peculiarly appropriate. He said the time will soon come, nay, Congress Welcomed to North Car- has already come, when the children of Georgia will read with glowing admiration the matchless deeds of the gallant McPherson, and the youth of Illinois and Iowa will learn the lesson of heroic patriotism and sacred devotion to duty at the grave of Jackson. He hoped the delegates present would enjoy their visit to the capital of North Carolina, and that the deliberations of the body would be productive of great good to the sections peculiarly interested in its workings. Again he extended a cordial welcome to the delegates to the city and its hospitali-

Dr. Maxwell, of Tennesee, responded to Mr. Busbee in behalf of the Congress. He returned in touching terms the thanks of the body for the hearty welcome which had been extended those whom he represented. One of the principal objects of this Congress was to unite more thorughly the every interest of this whole country, and the welcome extended here to those of the great West as well as those of the South would tend to weld together more thoroughly these two sections, and the representatives of the different States would carry with them proud recollections of this occasion.

On motion, Gov. Brogden and Mayor Separk, of the city of Raleigh, were invited to seats on the floor, and these gentlemen acknowledged the compliment in befitting

President Butler gave a brief history of the organization and its objects. It was organized in Atlanta in 1873, with a view of bettering the condition of the people of the Cotton States. The farming interests of Georgia were today in a better condition than it had been for fifteen years, and he could but attribute this fact to a great extent to the principles which had been inculcated in the two sesions of this Congress in that State, the principle object of which was to make the former a more independent class, to teach him to cut loose from that ruinous credit system which had so thoroughly impoverished the South, and to learn to till the soil by his own exertions. It was not the purpose of the friends of this Congress to array themselves against any class or any business, but he believed that every interest would be benefitted by the system of working proposed. He hoped the deliberations of the present Congress would result and he felt confident that it would be fraught with both pleasure and

VISIT TO THE INSANE ASYLUM. At half past 4 o'clock the gentlemen of the Congress accompanied by the Committee of Invitation, the Mayor of the City and a number of gentlemen of the city, took seats in carriages and proceeded to the Insane Asylum. Arrived there, they were welcomed with the courtesy characteristic of the Superintendent, Dr. Grissom, and conducted through the different Wards.

The visitors were m with the order, system, and perfect neatness and cleanliness of every thing. Comparisons were drawn between this and similar institutions in other States by no means to the disadvantage of this one of North Carolina, and highly complimentary to those who have the well being of these unfortunates in their hands. Leaving the buildings, the party was conducted through the kitchens, to the laundry, to the engine rooms, and viewed with satisfaction all the well ordered appliances of comfort and of safety. Thence a highly gratifying visit was made to the magnificent gardens teeming with its abundance of vegetables of almost every variety and in great excellence-a grateful tribute to the care and skill of the cultivators.

Returning to the building, the company was ushered into a handsome room and invited to a table beautifully and bountifully spread with retreshments, solid and liquid, to which ample justice was done with the accompaniment of playful humor and sparkling wit, the President of the Congress, Col. Butler proving himself an adept in both. A visit to the beautiful green house of the institution concluded a visit every way gratifying, the only alloy being the impression of the melancholy service to which this costly and well conducted building was an-

THE Radical party oppose the Convention because they believe they will be deprived of offices now held under force of the Canby Constitution. How is it, if this is not so, that so many office-holders are candidates for Convention?

WE don't want a Governor for four years, and we never had any use for a Lientenant Governor, nor do we want a Governor whose powers are such that he can at his own will set aside any act of legislation and constitute himself an autocrat. We do not want our chief magistrate invested with such powers as enable him to threaten us when we happen to displease him, with the powers of the general Government. And such a chief magistrate with just such powers the present Constitution gives us.

Do not the people see already the difference in the composition of the candidates for the Convention? Let them draw their inferences from the fact that the Radical party is putting forward abundantly office-holdtorneys, Revenue officers, those And the orators of the East could not on the present Constitution.

The Conservative candidates are none of them office-holders, and they embrace a larger number of substantial and intelligent farmers than have ever been put forward to represent the people. And let the people make their selection.

THE CHARLOTTE DEMOCRAT.

This sterling and very safely independent journal has just entered upon its 24th year. It has attained most substantial success, and brother Yates is one of the few journalists in the State who can look around him with complacent satisfaction at a prosperity the fruits of professional application. We hope that the success of the 24 years may be expanded through the growth of twentyfour more years, because it will be deserved. Differing sometimes in non-essentials, we always accord to brother Yates honesty of purpose and manliness of expression.

THE OLD CRY.

The Homestead has been in no danger. Whatever danger there might have been feared, was removed by the action of the Legislature last winter converting the tenure under the Homestead into a fee simple.-And it was doubly assured when the Convention bill imposed as one of the restrictions, the inviolability of the Homestead.

Nine tenths of the land-holders in the State are Democrats. The Democratic party stands pledged to maintain the Homestead. The charge then is false that the Convention would if it could interfere with it.

THE Charlotte Democrat touches a point which it would be well to reflect upon. It says, "unless the present Constitution is amended and the election of Judges restored to the Legislature, two or three of the Eastern Judicial Districts will hereafter elect negro Judges."

The present Judiciary is bad enough, relieved as it has been by the infusion of a new element. But it can be made worse by the admission to the bench of the O'Haras. the Mabsons, and the like who are watching their chances, and who will be as sure to go on the Bench as Hyman was to go to Congress. Will the white people of the West suffer this? Would they not rather surrender the selection of Judges to the Legislature, than retain it at the cost of the elevation of the negro to | these Conventions were productive the Bench?

their candidates to adjourn immediately after assembling if they find themselves in a majority. This is an electioneering dodge to catch such Democrats as they suppose unfriendly to Convention. But we have never believed it, and there is nothing in radical character to warrant the belief that after getting hold of power they will let it go. A. A. Campbell of East Tennessee is stumping the State for Convention-mind you, for Convention, for he wants to get there, and in a majority. He won't adjourn. He goes there to get a little legislation out of good and lawful men for the good of the party.

Now what that is may be readily imagined. The first and obvious step would be to re-district the State to suit their purposes, and another to fix in the Constitution a clause making its amendment impossible. This done and all is done, and the State lies tied hand and foot in the power of Radicalism. Have not the people had enough of it? Will they forget the oppression, the violence, the extravagance, the dishonesty of the two years of misrule which drove the people to madness and the Radicals from power? Will the people forget so soon, and suffer themselves to be bound again! God forbid!

WHERE WORK IS NEEDED.

We used vesterday a short article from the Wilmington Star, which speaks exactly to the point. It is not worth while to exhaust effort in counties where the issue is certain. Radical counties, controlled by large negro majorities, are not going to be changed by the most convincing argument, though one rose from the dead. Democratic counties like Catawba, are not going to be shaken in their faith, though no voice at all is heard.

But effort is needed in the doubtful counties, and most of them lie west of Raleigh. The best talent of the State should be directed to their preservation. Those counties want stirring up. They must be shown the dangers of apathy. And they must be roused to sympathy with other parts of the State which lie helpless under Radical rule and the fruits of the existing Constitution. No more noble duty lies upon the West than the redemption of ers, Judges, Solicitors, District At- their suffering brethren of the East. whose official existence depends up- more usefully apply their time and Legislatures of the South to attract their talents than going into the West, to demonstrate by their own experience the evils of which the West is to some extent happily un-

> Manly and Clark for instance which they cannot enlighten, but they might go into the West and confirm the faith of Randolph and Davidson and others that tremble in the balance. Howard might leave Edgecombe to be battled for by some of the gallant young champions of the cause, and go to the West where his experience could be usefully applied. Barnes cannot impress Northampton, nor Conigland Halifax, nor Davis New Hanover, but they might go in the mountains and raise such a storm of enthusiasm as would roll down one of those political avalanches which used in anti-bellum days always to accompany the political

But let those gentlemen go to the field at once. There is no time to ose.

THE COTTON STATES CON-

We present the result of the first lays deliberation of this body now n session in this city, which will be found on the first page of this issue.

The occassion has called forth full representation from North Carolina, with delegations from Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Arkansas, Missouri, Iowa, and Illinois, and its deliberations point to most important changes in the course of trade, the development of manufacturers and the improvement of agriculture.

Conventions have been held before, in days anterior to the war, and subsequent thereto. In the former it may be said that mercantile independence was sought only in anticipation of the political severance of the Union which was the leading idea with certaian politicians, and the knowledge of which motive prevented that cordial cooperation throughout the South which the effort at mercantile or agricultural independence would have secured. Yet it is true, that of some local benefit in those State

THE Radicals exact a pledge from | which really entered into them with eye single to internal improvement, and which acted upon principles, altogether divested of political bias. Georgia carned her title as the Empire State of the South by acting upon ideas either carried into or inspired by these Conventions, and which she industriously applied to her advancement.

> Since the war these Conventions have aimed at accomplishing aSouthern independence of a system which is proving ruinous to the planter of the great staple upon which Southern prosperity is avowedly founded. The large bulk of the cotton production finds its way to the markets of the world through Northern ports and Northern hands, subject to the vicious influences which have made the cotton market the sport of gamblers. Prices are no longer regulated by the laws of supply and demand but by the capricious will of stock-jobbers. The planter looks forward with no security to the results of his years labor which may be inflated or depressed at the will of those whose trade is gambling.

There is besides, a system of rontine, which is vexations, and a system of charges and expenses which are intolerable, even if the business were free from the control of the gamblers, and this, the Congress aims to remedy by the establishment of a Direct Trade between Southern ports and Europe.

The effort is one that can meet with no well founded objection. It s the exercise of a right clearly that of the South, if it has the ability to carry it out. There is no natural dependence upon the North, and no reason why our own ports, our own shipping and our own merchants should not use the productions of our own lands to the benefit of our planters and the building up of our own prosperity. Stripped of the subsidies now paid to Northern factors, ship masters and others which accumulate costs upon the planter, the cotton would nett to him twenty per cent more than it now does. Other objects will we presume engage the attention of the Congress. such as discussions upon the agricultural system of the South and measures for its improvement; manufactures and modes for its development. And it would be proper to consider the subject of immigration and to lay some plan before the Southward some of the surplus population of the old world. The labor question may also be a subject of discussion, though it is doubtful if any plan can be suggested by the wisdom of any one body to solve a might leave Craven in a darkness | problem which is both new and dif-

> Daring Attempt to Resene a Condemued Murderer !

> The Fffort Proves Abortive-One of the Assailants Killed and Another Wonaded.

We are indebted to the Local of the Asheville Pioneer for a copy of an extra of that paper on Saturday last, giving the account of a daring attempt to rescue a condemned murderer in that place that morning.-The following is the Pioneer's account of the affair:

This morning (Saturday, 10th inst.,) about 1 o'clock, a daring attempt was made to rescue William H. Hall, the condemned murderer, who has an appeal for another trinow pending in the Superior Court. For some time past it had been runored that the friends and relatives of Hall were contemplating measures for his escape, and those entrusted with his custody have been on the alert to frustrate their designs. Recently the guard at the jail intercepted a letter from the prisoner to his wife, in which he urged her to carry out the design, stating that either Wednesday, Thursday or Saturday night of this week would be a propitious time, and expressing his confidence in the success of the venture. This correspondence was carried on in a unique and original manner. Hall's wife was habit of bringing him milk daily, and when the empty vessel was returned it would invariably contain a paper stopper. The outside wrapnewspaper, while the inside contained the communica-One of the parties in this conspiracy to rob justice of its victim became uneasy at the part he was enacting, and informed the jailor of the manner in which the correspondence was carried on. He also stated that he had became entangled in the meshes of the conspiracy through fear of his life, which he deemed at the disposal of Jno. Howard Hall and his confederates. The information upon which the officers acted was in the main gained from this man, whose name is Marcus Lafayette Gregg.

A few days since Gregg informed the Sheriff that Wednesday night was the appointed time for this desperate attempt at rescue, and as his statement was corroborated by an intercepted letter, the jail guard was strengthened and everything put in readiness to resist the desperadoes. But Wednesday night passed off quietly-not a sound to disturb the unusual stillness of the public square. Phursday, the repentant Gregg informed the Sherig that their plans miscarried, because he (Gregg) refused to accompany them armed with a pistol. He stated to the officer that while he had no intention of assisting them in their unlawful desconstruction would be placed upon his conduct, if caught with them in the act with arms upon his person. As Gregg is a man of little or no moral character, his statements were accepted with a great deal of allowance by the Sheriff and his deputies. precaution, however, was aken to guard against surprise.

Thursday the conduct of certain men who had been implicated in the conspiracy by the statements of Gregg led some of the jail guard to believe that they intended making the attempt that night, and this opinion was confirmed by Gregg He said that John Howard Hall and George Boon, accompanied by himelf as a decoy, would approach the jail as soon as the moon went down; that their signal to Wm. Hall, the prisoner, would be two raps on an outhouse that stands within the jail enclosure. Accordingly, about 1 o'clock two of the men on post, Messrs. H. C. Edney and James Ledford were startled from their reverse which several nights of continuous watch ing had occasioned, by hearing the signal given. Scarcely had they collected their thoughts before the three men mentioned approached the jail from the east through the garden. The night was sufficiently light for them to be recognized by Mr. Jas. Ledford, who ordered them to halt. Boon who was on the fence leveled a pistol at Ledford, when the latter drew a double-barreled gun on him, and he fell off the fence in such position that the officer could not ring his weapon to bear on him. The other two men, who were over ie fence when this occurred now Being ordered to halt, Gregg laid down, and Hall continued to run. He was fired upon and fell. In he meantime Boon had recovered als feet, and while escaping was shot at four times, but with what effect not positively ascertained, though is rumored that he was shot in the right hip, the ball passing through is body. In the confusion that for lowed, Gregg jumped up and ran off. One of the guard now lighted a natch and examined the fallen man, John Howard Hall. The antire charge of buck-shot had entered his read and back, and his death must have been instantaneous. He had a arge stone clinched in either hand, which were with difficulty wrested from his icy grasp by the surgeon who examined him. -For the Dally News. Democratic Nomination in Moore County-Moore Determined to Do Her Duty-Gen. Cox and senator Merrimon Enthuse the People.

MOORE COUNTY, July 12, '75. Mr. Editor :- The campaign in Moore county was opened on Saturday last under very favorable auspicies. On that day a large and enthusiastic county Convention was held by the Conservative party to nominate a candidate to represent them in the Constitutional Convention. All the townships were fully represented. The names of severa of our most prominent citizens were put forward, and the balloting resulted in the choice of Capt. John B. Graham, who for the last five years has been Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, and has generally led the ticket in our county. After the adjournment of the Convention it was announced that Gen. W. R. Cox and Senator Merrimon were on the hill and would address the people. Soon the Court House was densely packed. Gen. Cox being introduced, spoke for an hour and a half, showing the necessity of a thorough change of the Canby Constitution, and in no measured terms the manner in which that instrument had been imposed upon the people of this State, and the evils they had endured under His speech was well received and he was frequently interrupted by applause. This was Gen. Cox's first visit to our county, and cur people are enthusiastic in their admiration of him.

Senator Merrimon was next introduced, but he needed no introduction, the people of Moore county remembering his splendid canvass for Governor three years ago. He spoke for about two hours in his usufelicitous style, dealing heavy blows at the gross inconsistencies of our present Constitution. To those who have heard Senator Merrimon on the stump it is needless to say that his speech had a telling effect upon

The best of feeling prevailed, and the Conservatives went home determined to roll up a good majority for Graham on the first Monday in Au-CITIZEN.

THE CROPS .- It is now generally conceded that the European crop of cereals will not be as abundant as it promised a month ago, 'the pros-pects of the wheat crop of this country are excellent. What with the surplus left over from last year the crop will be an average one, and as the South will probably make enough for its own use, there will be the greater quantity for export. The cotton crop promises unusually well, and the South bids fair to take a long step forward this year. The fruit crops are everywhere abundant, and Providence smiles on all the labors of igns, he did not know how far he fields. May it be the happy omen of was amenable to the law, or what returning prosperity.

ADDRESS OF THE EXECUTIVE DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COM. MITTEE TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

ROOMS OF THE DEMOCRATICCON.) SERVATIVE CENT'L EX. COM., RALEIGH, June 1st. '75. To the People of North Carolina: The General Assembly at its re-

ent session called a Convention of the people to meet at Raleigh on the 6th day of September next, for the irpose of suggesting such alterations in our organic law as may be deemed wise and expedient.

NECESSITY FOR CHANGE. The necessity for changing many of the provisions of the existing Constitution is generally admitted, and is gument. It is true that some of our prominent men at one time opposed he call for a convention; but their ction was based on prudential consideration, and not on an indisposi-ion to have the Constitution horoughly revised. They feared that our purpose in seeking to reform our Fundamental Law, might be misconstrued by the violent and illinformed men then controlling Congress, and the prosperity of our people checked, and the peace of the State jeopardized by some barsh and unconstitutional action on the part of the United States authorities. That fear no longer exists. We now have every assurance that the Constitution of the United States will be observed by the officers of the Government, and feel a satisfaction in announcing to you that the time has last arrived when the officials at Washington City concede that the pecple of North Carolina have the same right to manage their local concerns which the citizens of other States enjoy. We can proceed with-out apprehension to perfect our Con-stitution and remodel it in the interests of our people. THE CONSTITUTION, THE CREATURE

OF MILITARY LAW.

This Constitution, the creature of Military dictation, was born in the threes of a Military reconstruc-tion. Us authors were mainly Sciolists and adventurers, who had lived among us without preferment. or possessed of qualifictions entitling them to it; others were our recent slaves, who had known no law save he will of their masters, and others still were carpet-baggers, both black and white-alien in feeling and passengers must itadical in education—who sought until 9 o'clock at positions here that were denied them tlanta at 9 a. m., and passengers miliate us. And when facir work forced to lay over there for 12 was submitted to the people at the polls, thousands of our best citizens ment pleases the were deprived of the right of voting upon it, and over eighty thousand gnorant negroes were given the bal-lot to secure its adoption. It is no exaggeration to say that not one person in ten who voted for it could of July speech last | read the instrument, and not one in fifty had read it or was even moder-ately familiar with its provisions, Savings Bank, and many gave it their support beleiving it would be merely temporary, and to escape further support and adopted should be found unsuited to our condition, and that we nity consistent with reason and pru-dence to scoure such changes as time to bring them to necessary. Our organic law should be expressed in language clear, simple and perspicuous, so that nothing may be left to inference or construcw? The men who went into the tion; our rights, so precisely defined as to be compreheded by all men of ordinary intelligence; and each department of the government should be so restricted, that while left free to Just enough discharge its appropriate duties, it been put into the cannot by unwarranted encroachments embarrass the proper action of the others. ey slipped in five or six speckied the constitution control to speckied birles. mare so loose y worded and so badly anged as to constitute but a medicy of on-sistences that defies the successful struction of the courts; in fact, three-cile the difficulties arising from its prac-l working, the court workings, the court has in some in-ces been driven to supply omissions, stances been dilvent to supply obtained in others to introduce a new principle, hitherto unknown in the judicial history of our State, distinguished as "judicial legislation," an innovation anti-r-publican in character and invasive of the rights and duties of a separate department. Its provi lions are so obscure that within the brief space of its existence many more decisions on constitutional questions have been demanded than in the entire previous history of the State-maid of late we happylic. nanded than in the entire previous histo-you the State-mail of little we have wit-essed the extraordinary spectacle of two ts or judges in both the second and eight in middal Districts, contending for the same asstion, one of which claiming to hold by costion, one of which childing to hold by a appointment from the Governor for a seriod of ten years, an office that the Contitution seems to say is to be fitted by the copie at the polls, and whose term is expressed to be only eight years.

In many counties, there is a practical de-mai of justice, the counts are inadequate to the public demands, and thus they are driven to resort to special terms, which are expensive and unsa isfactory, and persons accused of criminal offetises are often confined for months without trial. We need a specific justice and a less expensive judiciary system. We should abolish, every useless office, which is now filted by a mere consumer; for only by a rigid and prudent economy in our public as well as private affairs, can we hope to restore the State to prosperity. It is believed that the laws will be more impartially administered by a return to the old practice of a rotation of the Judges.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CRIMINAL LAW NEC ESSARY. It is also hoped that a greater incentive obnesty and a purification of the ballo ox might result from depriving these who after of the Penitentiary which already contains more than six hundred able sodied men, also demands careful and practical attention, to remove the some measure that but den from our shoulders. Most of our private legislation should be excluded from the General Assembly. However, our limited space does not perhit us to catalogue the numerous defects and imperfections of the present constitu ion to enumerate the remedies to be of-

There should be some general ordinance dopted in relation to private enactments thereby reducing the expenses of the Leg-ture, and in order to prevent hasty and inconsiderate legislation trut no new ma-ters be brought lowward within — days of their adjourning.

CAREFUL SELECTION OF DELEGATES, As to the specific changes that ought to e made, these are to be considered by the ens of the various counties, who si careful to select as delegates those who il properly reflect their wishes. Men of larged and practical statesmanship, enlarged and practical statesmanship, spotless integrity, representatives of all classes of society, and whose positions among them will entitle them their labors to confidence and support labors to confidence and support— and in their hands they certainly can more safely confide their rights than in the Con-vention of 1868.

Of the two methods prescribed for changing the Constitution, that by legislative enactment is expensive, uncertain and dangerous; the several amendments recently submitted to and ratified by the people encountered the greatest difficulties in their passage, and even after the will of the people was declared in their favor by over 40,000 majority, serious apprehensions were entertained as to whether they were properly adopted; again, legislators when possessed of qualifications for such duties, are encumbered with numerous matters, and cannot bring that att-into no cach provision presented for consideration, without meeting such criticisms as may imperil their labors.

The Convention method is speedy and economical, the body is composed only of the same number of members as computer. METHODS OF CHANGE, summer at his farm in conomical, the body is composed only of the same number of members as comprise the House of Representatives, and their minds are directed alone to constitutional reforms and their work may be completed and ratified, if necessary, in six months. As to expenses that may be incurred, it is believed they will be more than defraved in a short time by the reforms that will be inaugurated.

The restrictions imposed by the Legislature, fully and amply secure the Homestead, Mechanics Lien, Rights of married women, and Personal Liberty, and should quiet the lears of the most timid, for they are recognized as of binding efficacy and are collected as of binding efficacy and are collected in the bill mainly to remove partizan ciamor, and snucipate scrupulous agitation. They are not the property of a rere party, but had their origin in the necessities of cyllized society and were found cresities of c viitzed society and were found among the statutes of various States pre-vious to the war.

Vious to the war.

QUALIFICATIONS OF BYLEGATES,
It is needes, however, to seek to queet the mere caviller; the keen optics of some persons dely all law. The mere fact that the honor of the best men in the State is pledged to their preservation, should a tisfy every reasonable voter. This Convention is called in pursuance of haw, and each delegate before "he shall be permitted to sit, to be entitled to a seat in said Convention of act as a delegate thereto," shall swear to observe these "restrictions" (see acts 1874-5.)
Should a part comply and part refuse to take this oath, only those who obey the law are members of the body, nor are we without precedents; similar oath was required of the members of the firestricted Convention" of 1825, the same question was naised, and after debate all tax members cook the oath and observed the restrictions, and that in a firm of the law preserves to convention, of its, the same desion was alsed, and after debate all the members cook the oath and observed the restrictions, and that in a time of high part, exe tement. In that discussion the distinguished Judge Caston used the following language: The State Legislature had indeed no authority to impose an oath upon the members of the Convention, but the people had ratified the act of the Legislature by choosing delegates under it. If we transcend the limits or remse obdedience to the conditions therein prescribed we are not the Convention called by the people, but a self constituted body;" these views were concurred in by Macon, Edwards, Morehead, and others. We will dismiss the subject, however, by calling attention to the able work of Judge Jantieson on "constitutional Conventions," where, by argument a discusses cited by him in relation to this matter, he demonstrated that Coventions are bound to obey the restrictions imposed by the Legislature in the Act calling the Convention. Convention.

Convention.

All FROM REPUBLICANS.
In our last election it was gratifying to see Republicans who had hitherte submitted to the control of unscrupations leaders under a mistaken belief that they were promoting the general welfare, seeing their enrapticess as demonstrated by the "Credit Mobilier revelations," "Samborn Contracts," and other frauds and defalcations, and their vindictive and relentiess policy, whereby they sought to degrade the superior race by this highliens "Civil Rights Bill," overcome their party prejudice and give us their cordial support. To them we extend an invitation to remain and congive us their cordial support. To them we extend an invitation to remain and continue the work so anspiciously began. To thosed who oppose us under the defusion of their leaders, who assured them this bill would never pass Congress and if it did would be vetoed by the Prosident, though it now has his signature; and who have witnessed the earnestness with which the daugerous "Force Bill" was urged upon Congress, we say no longer remain where there is not there as fely nor monor to a North Carolinian. The table for civil liberty is not yet over. "Civil Rights" is still a part of the secret carpet-beg programme for this Stafe; though ariven from the halls of Congress, it will be renewed in the Southern States. We therefore invite their cooperation. The Convention owes its final success to the support of some of their abiest representatives in the General Assembly and they are doubtless aware that the wise provisious introduced, into the the wise provisions introduced into the convention of ISS, by their salest native representatives were scouted and defeated by their rame element that has brought by that same element that has brought ruin upon their party and confusion to our State.

NECESSITY OF SEGANIZATION.

The friends of Convention should at one a perioditheir organization and bring out their best men in every county in the State. The lenders of the Republican party know that by their receives violations of the constitution and efforts to central zeall power in the hands of the Federal Government.

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend to the members of the Democratic Conservative party to discourage independent candidates and all other disorganizers, that all support be promptly withdrawn from every aspirant for office who shall oppose the regular nominees of our Conventions be duly advertised and see that the people have a full opportunity of attending and expressing their wishes. The contest is important not only in its immediate effects but in subsequent results. The flepublican party, under the leadership of caruet-bangers still remaining among us, will advocate the election of delegates, who will agree to meet and as journ without holding a Convention, and this in violation of the wishes of the people, expressed through a two-thirds majority of the chosen flepresentatives, and after a considerable part of the expenses for milage and per alem is incurred. We believe, however, the promise is but a delusion and snare, for shoul if they ascertain they have a majority in the body. It will be an easy matter for they ascertain they have a maj the body, it will be an easy matter for to evade their promise by the refuse ew to concur; as they do not acknowl-the "restrictions" as binding, they vid resort to the most revolutionary meas-ties to sustain their desperate fortunes, and in the end will fail to submit their work to the people for ratification or rejec-lon.

Let us, therefore, present a united front, and with a general advance along our lines addicalism will not only be routed but overwhelmed, and a victory for Civil Liberty assured for 1876.

Orangemen Mobbed. LAWRENCE, MASS., July 13 -A mob attacked the Orangemen returning from pic-nics. The Orangemen with ladies and children just disembarked from the steamer landing, several hundred Irish followed shouting and jeering, finally throwing stones. A lady was struck three times and badly hurt all more or less injured during the half mile walk to the station house for refuge.

Four men wore regalia. One was severely hurt. He had his sash torn off. The Mayor undertook to disperse the crowd ineffectually. The Mayor with a squad of police attemp-ted to escort the refuges home. Showers of stones and bricks were hurled at the party soon as it ap-peared. With the exception of the Mayor, every one was hurt, some seriously. The mob made a furious assault, nearly all of the Orangemen and police knocked. The commenced fireing on the Irish who cried kill the d—d Orangemen. The mob scattered before the revolvers. None were killed outright. Two men and one woman and a boy o twelve were wounded. The riot lasted two hours and extended over the route of a mile in the most thickly settled portion of the city.

Row Between the Irish and Negroca in Clarksville, Tenn.

LOUISVILLE, July 13 .- A special from Clarksville, Tenn., says that two Irishmen attacked a negro with a knife. The next morning twenty negroes attacked the Irishmen, who took refuge in a grocery store, from whence they were taken by the police to the station for safety. The same night the negroes assailed the grocery with pistols, stones and axes and nearly demolished it. Several disreputable houses were mobbed. Meantime the friends of the Irishmen battered down the door of the calaboose, liberating them. A general riot was feared, but all is quiet now. None seriously hurt.

Affairs in Spain.

All the Grandees of Spain with incomes of ten thousand dollars and over are included in the first class.

The Spanish steamer Bayones has been wrecked near the village of Matrico, on the Biscayan coast. The crew was saved by the Carlist fisher men, and it is said they will be held as hostages and the Carlists threaten to shoot them if the Royalists bombard any more coast towns.

At Moody and Sankey's farewell meeting in London Monday night one hundred and eighty-eight clergymen of the church werepresent, those of the church of England far outnumbering any other denomination. Canon Conway, of West Minister, occupied a seat on the platform. All present were deeply affected. Missouri State Democratic Commit tee-- Resolutions Adopted.

St. Louis, July 13.—At a meeting of the Democratic State Executive Committee the following was adopted: Resolved that in our opinion the choice of St. Louis as the place of holding the next National Democratic Convention would be an act of justice to the democracy of the West; that in the maginficent new Merchant's Exchange which can com-fortably seat fifteen thousand persons, we have a Hall amply for the convenience of members and spectators; that we urge upon the member of the National Committee for this State that he uses his best endeavors to secure the selection of St. Louis and we authorize him in behalf of the Democracy of our State to give the assurance that they will pay the ex-penses of Convention and on behalf of the citizens that the members will be accommodated with as much comfort and at as little expense as they would be any where else, while our citizens would vie with each other in tendering their hospitalites. Signed by all the members of the Executive Committee.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.-In a recent address to the alumni and stu-dents of Harvard College, Dr. T. D. Woolsey, ex-president of Yale College, stated his opinion of unrestricted voting in these words: "As for universal suffrage, I do not believe in it, neither as a right of the citizen nor as a method of government; but it is upon us, and we are to make the best of it." This expression, it will be noted, does not come from the South, but from one of the most eminent publicists in the Northern States. Even the Chicago Times, a journal of ability, but by no means conservative, says: "In this opinion most thinking men who have considered the matter attentively will probably concur."

An Arkansas eorrespondent writes to the Department of Agriculture at Washington concerning destitution in that State, but ascribes it chiefly to "a prevalent habit of lazy loafing in place of industry and consequent thrift." He adds that "the time which ought to be devoted to vigorous work in improving the soil and cultivating good crops is spent, the greater part, in hanging around public houses and other places of com-mon resort, and the less part in farming in the most superficial slip shod and slovenly manner." This is a pretty heavy charge against our Arkansas friends. If untrue they should make the fact apparent; if true, they should mend their ways.

The Cincinnati Gazette gives the fellowing as an exact copy of a coroner's jury verdict, which was filled in the county clerk's office at Cincinnati Tuesday: "We the jury, find that the said Louis Fillman come to his death by a shot accidently went off by himself by killing a cat by shooting the same and when she was not dead instantly by striking the cat with the breech of the gun and the load discharged itself."
